

CINESTUDY - Girlfriend film

by Peter John Ross

Sonnyboo.com
520 Enterprise Drive, Suite C
Lewis Center, Ohio 43035
818-396-6758

INT. MUSEUM - DAY

SAMANTHA talks on her phone to HEATHER.

SAMANTHA

How can you do this to me? You knew how much I liked Steve!

INT. / EXT. WHEREVER YOU WANT - DAY

You get to decide where Heather's scene takes place. The scenes will intercut between the two locations

Heather is the more confident of the two friends and she has stolen Samantha's crush for herself. Heather feels bad for doing this too.

HEATHER

But you never talked to him. Steve asked me out.

SAMANTHA

That doesn't mean you have to say yes.

HEATHER

Since you didn't ever talk to him and he asked me out, that ended your social contract. I'm in the clear, right?

SAMANTHA

Social contract? What social contract? Did you even think about my feelings when you went out?

HEATHER

Which time?

SAMANTHA

You've gone out more than once? Can you believe she did this to me?

HEATHER

Look. I like him, okay? Steve's not really your type.

SAMANTHA

How would I know? You swooped in and took him before I even had a chance. You are such a Pretentious.
(MORE)

SAMANTHA (CONT'D)

Evil. Skanky. Unreliable. Selfish.
No good. Backstabbing. Supercilious (it means you're condescending, which you are too). Haughty.
Presumptuous. And, you're a bitch.
(alternate, "And, you look fat in jeans").

HEATHER

Steve has a friend. He's a lawyer.
He asked about you.

SAMANTHA

He asked about me? What does he look like? What kind of shoes did he have? Don't tell him about that time I drank too much and made out with the bartender after Shirley's bachelorette party, okay? Oh, did you tell him that I make the best brownies?

Heather rolls her eyes and holds the phone away from her head.